Read The level of expressing agreements and disagreements

Expressing agreement	Expressing disagreement
Strong Absolutely. Exactly. I totally agree with you. I have exactly the same opinion as you.	Strong I totally disagree. I'm afraid I can't agree with you there. With respect, I have to say I don't agree. I disagree entirely.

You have hit the nail on the head. (idiom)

Medium

I agree to a certain extent.

I am with you up to a point.

I agree partly.

I guess you're right.

I can't go along with that at all.

It's out of the question.

I understand what you are saying, but I have a different opinion.

Medium

I agree with you to a point but I disagree about...

I know what you mean but...

I don't really agree with you.

I think it might be better to...

I'd be inclined to think the opposite

convinced

B: I'm not that this is what the client wants.

A: But they asked for bright colors.

B: I think..... I disagree They said they wanted the design to be fresh and fun.

A: But this design IS fresh and fun.

B: I'm..... not so sure

A: Really?

B: Don't..... get me wrong, I like your design but it doesn't fit the brief.

A: I see..... what you mean I guess it's a bit too flashy.

B: What about changing the red and the stars?

A: Maybe you've..... got a pointthere. I think you're..... right Is that better?

B: Yes, definitely

Paul: Why?

Emir: Well, this design is just too simple.

Paul: It's not simple, it's minimal. Plus, it's what the client asked for.

Emir: I'm not so sure. Look ... Look at these designs here. I think this is the style that the client wants.

Paul: Hmmm ... I think I disagree. They said they wanted it clean and minimal.

Emir: These designs are clean and minimal.

Paul: Look, don't get me wrong, Emir. I like them, but I don't think they fit the brief. For example, here, there's just a bit too much going on.

Emir: OK, I see what you mean, but without all the color, it would look a bit ... empty.

Paul: True. OK, how about taking that and that away? So it still looks interesting, but less busy.

Emir: OK ... maybe you've got a point there. Actually, that has given me an idea

Emir: So we remove the blue. I think that creates a nice balance.

Paul: Yeah, yeah. I think you're right. Changing the circles helped too.

Emir: I agree. So we're happy with this now?

Paul: Yes, definitely.

Grammar Review:

Look at the difference between "should" and "could".

You should try yoga.
(=I think that yoga is the best for you.)

You could try yoga.
(=Yoga is one possibility for you.)

The most common way to make a suggestion is to use the modal "should".

Subject + should + verb...

- a. You should study listening more if you want to improve your English.
- b. He should quit his job.
- c. You should get your mom a scarf for her birthday.

Subject + could + verb...

- You could do yoga if you want to be healthier.
- We could go to Thailand for the next vacation.
- They could come to our house for Christmas dinner.

Why don't/doesn't + subject + verb...?

- Why don't you try Jujitsu?
- Why doesn't she break up with her boyfriend?
- If you hate your job, then why don't you quit?

How about + gerund/noun...?

- How about trying this restaurant?
- How about going back to school to get your master's degree?
- How about this movie?

I suggest/recommend that + sentence

- I suggest that you study grammar more.
- I suggest that he think more about it before he makes a decision.
- I recommend that she focus on improving her speaking.
- I recommend that you go to Thailand for your honeymoon.

Activity 31: Choose the correct answers.

1. You shouldn't / mustn't drink coffee after six in the evening.
2. I'm sure your dad will / would give us a lift if you ask him.
3. Pete should / could see a doctor about those headaches of his.
